COMING ATTRACTION

Down
Memory
Lane

It was necessary that I sell stories, and to sell them they had to be written, so I wrote. No sooner was a story in the mail than I wrote another, and another. I like to tell stories. I have always enjoyed it, yet writing is always and forever a learning process. One is never good enough and one never knows enough. I cannot repeat that too often. No matter how good a writer becomes, he can always be better.

Louis L'Amour,
Education of a Wandering Man

10 YEARS OF 32S

Those of you who have been with us from the beginning, from The Avenging Mind, can look back, remember, see, think about and judge the progress we have made in this unique series. See how the Ditko Repertoire Players, the characters introduced here, have developed, evolved, matured.

Speaking of that select group, the many features A to Z...

In the first book there were just two characters, The Hero and The Villain.

Now see how the stage encompasses so very many new and original creations, The !? to The Cape, Outline and The P Masks and...

Javier Hernandez is in a growing body of readers who prefers Miss Eerie to the many features. For Javier and those others, here is the new episode of this unusual character.

Onward...
